Wednesday brought many of our members to Roadrunner RV Park early. The weather was great for dinner at the Hildago Mexican restaurant in Moore, OK. The food and the company were great.

The hosts created a delightful atmosphere to the theme of Do You Remember When.

We had a wonderful dinner of chicken and dumplings, corn, and salad on Thursday night.

A special thank you to:

Frank and Cyndy Timchak, who gave each of us a handmade frame with our RV pictures.

Joe Bouse handed out handmade key rings to all the attendees.

Joyce VanTuyl had her famous cookies for snacks during our game time.

Several of the guys got in a round of golf on Friday.

We were happy to see Charley and Sandy Val Bracht back among us as well as Tom and Linda Roberts.

Baked potatoes with all the trimmings were served Friday evening. After dinner, we had some time for people to share special memories with the group and some lively game time.

Saturday we were treated to an afternoon of food and fun at the Williamson/Rood residences. We were served burgers, brats, and all the trimmings. There were wonderful desserts as well and soft serve ice cream. A real treat. Chris Curtis dropped in to enjoy the fun afternoon. It was great to see her again.

Eight teams competed in the afternoon corn hole tournament.

Terri Gentry and Ron Lee was the last team standing.

Another wonderful rally in the books.

A big Thanks to our Rally Masters and Hosts!!
